Annex No. 1

to the Regulations for the provision of services by electronic means at Hotel Gołębiewski in Mikolajki as part of the www.golebiewski.pl website,

Information on specific threats associated with the use by users of Services provided by electronic means by Hotel Gołębiewski in Mikolajki.

A threat to every Internet user, including those using services provided by electronic means, is the possibility of 'infecting' the ICT system with various types of software created mainly to cause damage, such as viruses, 'worms' or 'Trojan horses'. The operation of the global Internet network depends on the services of many entities.

The Service Provider has no control over the operation and availability of the Internet, and electronic communications are exposed to interference by third parties. In order to avoid these threats, it is important that the Customer equips their computer or mobile device which they use to connect to the Internet with antivirus software and keeps it up to date by installing the latest versions as soon as they are available on the market.

The Service Provider continuously takes measures to improve the security of communication with the Website and to facilitate the use of the Website. However, it is not possible to completely eliminate the risk of third-party interference. The Service Provider also informs that particular threats associated with the use of the service provided by electronic means, including those described in the Regulations, relate to the activities of so-called hackers aiming to break into both the Service Provider's (e.g. attacks on its websites) and the Customer's systems.

Users making so-called 'electronic payments' via the Internet should in particular protect information containing details of bank account numbers, credit cards from disclosure to third parties.

photographs, audio files, video files, data files, presentations, programmes and all other data) presented on the Website may be reproduced or distributed in any form or by any means without the prior permission of the Service Provider.

§8 Final Provisions

- In matters not covered by these Regulations, the provisions of the Civil Code Act of 23 April 1964 (consolidated text: Journal of Laws of 2016, item 380, as amended), the Act on Provision of Services by Electronic Means (consolidated text: Journal of Laws of 2016, item 1030) and other generally applicable laws shall apply.
- 2. The Service Provider reserves the right to amend these Regulations, with the proviso that the version of the Regulations in force at the time of booking by the Customer shall apply to bookings made before the Regulations were amended.
- 3. Amendments to the Regulations shall not affect the rights acquired by the Customer up to the time of the amendment of the Regulations.
- 4. Information on amendments to the Regulations will be published on the Website.
- 5. Notification of amendments to the Regulations will take place no later than 7 calendar days before the amendment to the Regulations becomes effective.
- 6. Date of publication of the Regulations: 2023/03/01.
